WWI OUTDOOR MUSEUM SABOTIN – THE PARK OF PEACE

Almost each stone in the Mt. Sabotin Park of Peace could tell a story about the Austro-Hungarian and Italian soldiers, fortifying their battle positions. During World War I the mountain was drilled from all sides and crisscrossed by galleries, trenches and caves. Due to its strategic position over the River Soča it was first an important Austro-Hungarian bridgehead on the right bank, but in the Sixth Isonzo Battle in August 1916 it was conquered, together with Gorizia/Gorica, by the Italian Army. The ascent up Mt. Sabotin is rewarded by a panoramic view of the Vipava Valley and the Brda/Collio Hills, to the Kras, the Friuli Lowland and the Julian Alps. The facilities of the former border guard post at Sabotin host an innovative multimedia visitor centre. The centre comprises a museum, an info point and numerous remains, which make it an important stop along the Walk of Peace from the Alps to the Adriatic trail. The nearby snack-bar offering the tasty local jota stew and other delicacies.

Every Saturday, Sunday and Holiday at 10:00, 12:00, 14:00 and 16:00. Price: 5 €/person. Duration of the guided tour: 1.5 hrs.
Assembly point: at the Walk of Peace Visitor Centre Sabotin

MONUMENT OF PEACE CERJE TREASURY OF HISTORY AND ART

The Cerje peak proudly rises at the edge of the Kras Plateau, offering glorious views over the Adriatic Sea, the Friulian Plain, the Julian Alps and the Vipava Valley. Here stands a 25-metre-high Monument of Peace, which takes the visitor through Slovenia's history, from the Freising Manuscripts to the Slovene independence. It houses several museum collections, including one about World War I, which had a major impact on the Kras. The Isonzo Front that ran from the highest peaks of the Julian Alps, across the Kras, and towards the sea is presented in the grand canvas by Rudi Španzel, The Dance of Life and Death. The local bistro invites you to taste local specialities and enjoy a cup of coffee, as well as the best view over the surrounding panorama area. The Monument of Peace is an excellent starting point for exploring the remains of World War I in this area.

Each Saturday in July and August at 10:00. Prior registration required by Thursday, 17:00. Price: 10 €/person Duration of the guided tour: 1.5 hrs. Assembly point: Monument of Peace Cerje.

Kolovrat

WW1 OUTDOOR MUSEUM

KOLOVRAT – A VIEW OVER THE FRONT

The Kolovrat ridge rises above the Soča Valley and offers exceptional views over the emerald river, the Julian Alps, Venezia-Giulia, the Friuli lowland and the Adriatic Sea. Today, we can enjoy the peace of unspoiled nature here, while during World War I the Kolovrat had to witness the destructive Isonzo Front. In the outdoor museum we are going to explore the onetime Italian line of defence with the preserved command posts, shooting positions, a network of trenches and caves with the impressive spiral stairs in one of them. This formerly crucial line of division is nowadays a symbol of the unifying power of remembrance, since we shall walk on both territories, the Italian and the Slovenian, while discovering the history of WW1.

In July and August each Saturday at 9:00. Prior registration required by Friday, 6:00 p.m. at +386 31 586 296 or info@thewalkofpeace.com Price: 17,00 €/person. Duration of the guided tour: 1,5 hrs. Assembly point: parking area at the Walk of Peace Info Point on Kolovrat.

Feldban

MILITARY NARROW-GAUGE RAILWAY

FELDBAN

The story of feldban begins in World War I. In August 1916, the Italian Army pushed the Austro-Hungarian Army to the left bank of the Soča (Isonzo) river, cutting its supply route via the Bohinj Railway. As the remaining railways failed to provide sufficient supplies, they promoted the construction of new sections of narrow-gauge railway – feldban (Feldbahn). They connected the battlefield with the railway station at Logatec. From here, the feldban ran along the road to Godovič and then towards Črni Vrh and Lokve, the second part branched off towards Idrija. On the guided hike you will get to know the section from Godovič to Idrija in the Strug gorge. You will see the tunnel, embankments, supporting walls, cuttings, remains of the feldban bridge and the levelling with the turning point. There, the feldban turned back in the direction to Idrija.

Each Saturday at 10:00 in July, August and September. Prior registration required by Thursday, 12 a.m. at +386 5 37 43 916 or tic@visit-idrija.si Price: 15 €/person (surcharge 3 €/person for a snack) Duration of the guided tour: 4 hrs. Assembly point: parking area by the football field in Idrija
